

Community Connection

New Horizons at Marlborough

Serving Metrowest Seniors since 1994

A Turning Point in Senior Living!

August 2025

Standing Room Only: The Wayside Inn shared its history and outlined the improvements it plans to make with the grant money it received from Cummings Foundation. President John Ho and Vice President Michael McCluskey are excellent historians.

Pictured above, left: Dining Room Supervisor Miqueias Tobias and Julie; center, Pat Corkery and Isabel; right, Pegg Webb and Guinny

Our Very Own Dog Show: From best dressed to best trick, these four-legged stars strutted their stuff and wagged their way to everyone's hearts. The event was more than just a competition; it was a celebration of the special bond between humans and their pets, with each wag and woof echoing the joy and love they bring into our lives.

To view this newsletter in color, see the postings throughout the community or visit www.countrycommunities.com

Memory Care Highlights

Pictured above left, Rita Sixsmith; center, Jane Davidson; right, Eric Tarini

It's always a great time for our Memory Care residents when Kalifornia Karl comes to perform for us.

Upcoming Events

Watch Channel 918 for more details

August 5: David Won the tenor

August 8: Elegant Tea Party

August 11: Professor Bill discusses the Russian Revolution

August 16: Cello Skip Vonkuske

August 19: Violin at dinner

August 22: Emille on Piano

August 28: Cooking with Chef Paula

August 30: Travelogue about Germany

Heard Around Town

Recent Campus Improvements

- 140+ kitchen upgrades:
 - 420: 100% complete
 - 370: 50% complete
- 7 new chillers installed to produce more reliable and efficient air conditioning
- 42 yards of concrete poured to upgrade sidewalks at 420, 370, and 400
- Another major part of the 400 roofing has been replaced

@newhorizons.marlborough

New Horizons at Marlborough

Meet Your New Neighbors

Joan DiTomasso

Joan's life is a rich tapestry of experiences and commitments. Born in Boston and raised in Berlin, her cultural heritage shaped her journey. She was married to attorney Joseph DiTomasso for 52 years, raising three children in Marlborough, which became central to their family life. Joan owned Salon DeVenus for 30 years, where she styled hair and fostered community relationships. Her story exemplifies dedication to family, business, and her vibrant communities.

Nancy Mastrangelo

Nancy was born in Auburn, New York, and worked as a full-time nurse in Boston. She met her husband, Edward Mastrangelo, in the area and they opened and operated the Angel Motel on Route 132 in Hyannis. Together, they managed the motel during the summer months, closing it for the fall and relocating to California for the winter. Nancy is a mother to two daughters and has several grandchildren. Her hobbies include quilting, walking, gardening, and baking.

Renee Kossuth

Renee, from Yonkers, New York, graduated from a boarding school and married George Kossuth in the 1950s, enjoying more than 30 years together while he worked at Raytheon. Together, they traveled to Hawaii, Mexico, Spain, and London. She lived in Marlborough and Hudson, serving as a legal office supervisor for National Grid. A proud mother of two and grandmother of three, she loved collecting ceramics, had two dogs, and enjoys reading, word puzzles, and church activities.

Virginia 'Ginny' Gadbois

Born on April 1, she shares her birthday with her sister and grew up in Marlborough, where she attended public high school and met her future husband, attorney David Gadbois. They have two children, six grandchildren, and a great-grandchild on the way. She has a creative background, performing in school plays and making occasional TV appearances. She enjoyed skiing and supported her husband during his Army service and law school. Feel free to say hi if you see her.

We are thrilled to extend a warm welcome to Joan, Nancy, Renee, and Ginny as they join our community. Please join us in giving them a heartfelt welcome and supporting them as they embark on this new journey with us.